

#3: Shop till You Drop in London!

Start your day at Harrods, one of the most famous stores in the world, and a must-see for many visitors to London. They say there's nothing you can't buy in Harrods! A visit to the food hall is a must. (Note: there is a strict dress code at Harrods; you may be denied entrance if you are not smartly dressed, i.e., no split jeans, etc.) ($$$$) www.harrods.com

Walk along Oxford Street and pop into any of the more than 300 shops, including clothing stores, shoe stores, souvenir shops, and much more. ($ - $$$)

Selfridges is one of the world's finest department stores and dominates the west end of Oxford Street. The shop has 6 floors offering 10 acres of shopping space, 11 places to eat, 2 exhibition halls and countless services. ($ - $$$) www.selfridges.com/index.cfm?page=1181

Regent Street is home to a number of large outlets offering everything from toys and trench coats to fabrics and food. A great place to window shop, if nothing else. ($ - $$$)

Along the way, stop in at Hamley's, which has a reputation as the "finest toyshop in the world", with more than 40,000 toys and games in 7 floors! ($ - $$$) www.hamleys.com

Along Carnaby Street you'll find cutting edge designer talents and trendy street ware. With over 140 shops, it's definitely worth a visit. It's a fantastic place to buy footwear, and there are a number of fine cosmetics shops and a few boutiques selling vintage mod clothing. Trocadero Centre is a vibrant center for shopping, eating and entertainment located right at Piccadilly Circus. ($ - $$$) www.londontrocadero.com

Lillywhite's is THE place to get all the apparel related to the UK sporting associations, most popularly, the "football" [i.e., soccer] clubs. ($ - $$) www.allinlondon.co.uk/directory/1292/2500.php

Enjoy the evening at Covent Garden, once London's main fruit, flower and vegetable market, and the setting for "My Fair Lady". Nowadays it has numerous boutique shops and eateries, as well as street entertainers. The Apple Market in Covent Garden Market and the Jubilee Hall Market on the south side of the Piazza both sell an unusual and imaginative range of handicrafts, jewelry, clothing and gifts.
